PHYLLIS AUSTIN

Her story...

Shortly after moving to Georgia, my son was placed on the academic honor roll. I asked his teacher, "Why, you didn't notice he doesn't spell well?" In addition, as a teacher in the same school zone, I was told that my teaching style was too hard. I replied, "I taught these same biochemical pathways to my so-called 'urban' students.

A former teacher and administrator, Mrs. Austin, in 2001, started In My Shoes, Inc, a non-profit organization, which educates parents on education. The organization's objectives are to stop parents from being misled about the academic skills of their child and help parents create quality education for their child.

Last year, Mrs. Austin founded Parents the Power, a parent support organization. In her words... "I had noticed that parents, literally, would run out of effective parenting strategies; they would revert back to doing what they know, even if it didn't work. In addition, many parents had difficulties overcoming the fear and frustration so-often faced when parenting their child."

This year, working with groups of parents and schools across the Country,

Mrs. Austin and In My Shoes, Inc. will institute THE PARENT READ.

THE PARENT READ

Empowering and involving groups of parents for a better more effective school.

Two overall objectives

to increase the quality of education in schools

to increase the academic success of students

...by increasing parental involvement

FOUR COMPONENTS

1) THE SUPPORT ORGANIZATIONS

- In My Shoes, Inc and Your School

2) THE BOOK - From Parent to Power-

provides knowledge and strategies in parenting, schooling, and education while renewing the Spirit of the Parent to overcome fear and frustration.

3) THE INTERACTIVE FORUM - Bringing together, sharing and communicating thoughts, ideas, solutions, teachers, parents, etc.

4) THE POWER - YOU, THE PARENTS

From PARENT to POWER

Agape Love • Learning Styles • Multiple Intelligence • Cognitive Development • Bloom's Taxonomy • Conditioning your home for success • Real Case Scenarios • Strategies • Renewing your Spirit • Prevention (teen/parent suicide) And More

Why 'The Parent Read', because of WHAT WE KNOW...

When your child enters school, your child is entering a level of consciousness, which affects us all. Therefore, we all must be involved.

A SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL HAS TO HAVE HIGH PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

MANY PARENTS NEED SUPPORT, DO NOT SEEK OR ASK FOR HELP, ARE FRUSTRATED, AND ARE NOT BEING HEARD

MANY PARENTS LACK EFFECTIVE STRATEGIES TO HELP THEIR CHILD AT SCHOOL OR SUPPORT THEIR CHILD AT HOME

NOT ALL PARENTS KNOW HOW TO EFFECTIVELY BE INVOLVED IN THEIR CHILD'S EDUCATION

THE TURNOVER RATE OF TEACHERS IS HIGH, WHICH AFFECTS TEACHER EXPERIENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

WE ARE NOT ALWAYS AT OUR BEST

INCREASED PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT INCREASES STUDENT SUCCESS

YOUR SCHOOL & ITS PARENTS MUST WORK TOGETHER
